

I am thoroughly pleased with New Jersey's do not call list. There is nothing more intruding and aggravating than receiving calls from people that I did not give permission to call me. I do not want telemarketers calling me. One of the reasons why I am happy to live in the State of New Jersey is because of the "Do Not Call" law.